What is a Yahoo! group?

It's where people with a shared interest meet, get to know each other and stay informed. A group gives free and instant access to:

- Shared message archives;
- photos and photo albums;
- group event calendars;
- member polls and shared links.

How do I register as a user?

1. Go to <http://yahoo.groups.com>
2. Click on 'Sign up'.

The banner features a photograph of four people (three adults and one child) sitting outdoors and smiling. To the right of the photo, the text reads: 'Connect with a world of people who share your passions.' Below this, in smaller text: 'With millions of groups at your fingertips, it's easy to find the group that's best for you — no matter your interest.' At the bottom, it says: 'New to Groups? Sign Up. Already a Yahoo! Groups member? Sign In.' A red arrow points from the 'Sign up' instruction in the text above to the 'Sign Up' link in the banner.

3. Fill in your personal information.

How do I become a member of a Yahoo! group? <sup>1</sup>

Joining a group in Yahoo! Groups is a quick and easy process. You can join a group in three ways:

- 1) Joining by going to the group's page.
- 2) Joining by responding to an invitation to join.
- 3) Joining by subscribing to a group's mailing list only.

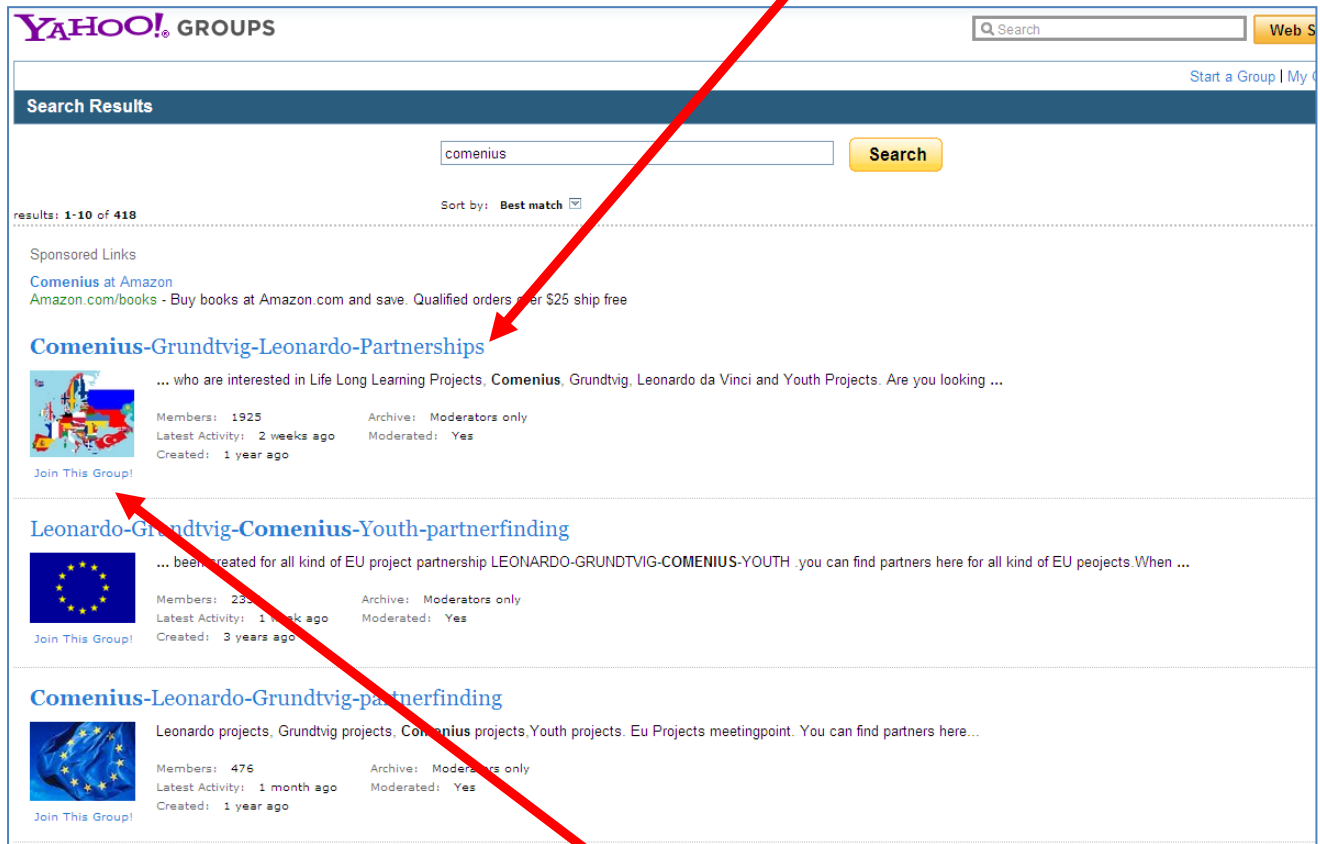

If you are not sure which group you want to join, start by browsing the Groups Directory on the main Yahoo! Groups page (<http://groups.yahoo.com>) or searching for a group by topic.

<sup>1</sup> Based on <http://help.yahoo.com/l/us/yahoo/groups/original/members/manage/manage-06.html>

1) Joining by going to the group's page.

a. When you find a group you want to join, click the group's name.

Yahoo! Groups Tips

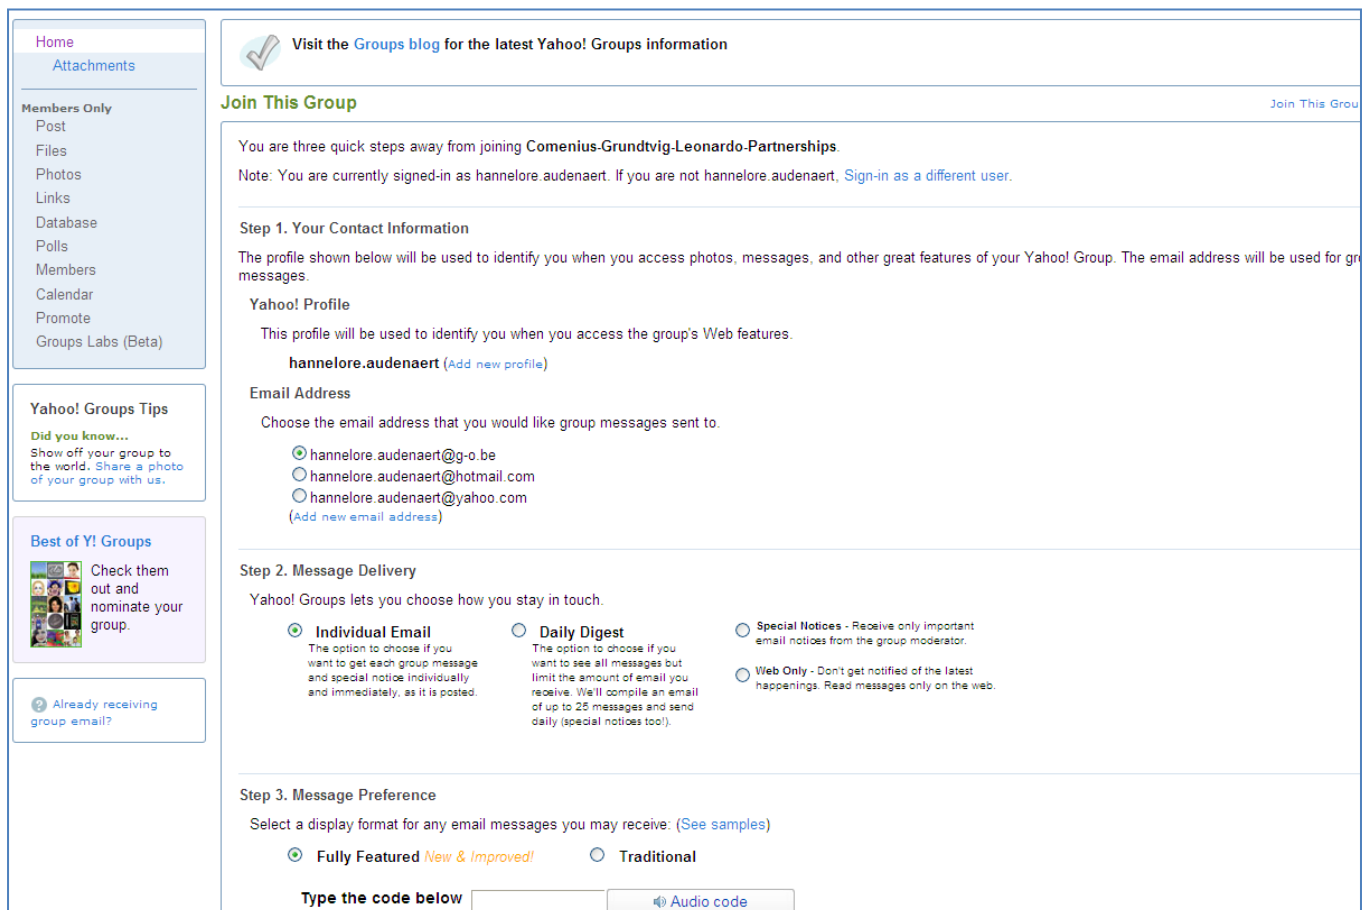

- c. If you are not already signed in to your Yahoo! Account, enter your Yahoo! ID and password in the 'Sign In to Yahoo!' box that appears:

The screenshot shows the Yahoo! homepage. On the left, there's a 'Welcome to Yahoo!' message with a list of benefits: staying in touch with free Mail and Messenger, protecting your PC with free Anti-Spy and Pop-Up Blocker, getting weather forecasts, and tuning in to the latest in music, entertainment, and sports. Below this is a section for 'Get all the best with one Yahoo! ID', explaining that it gives access to powerful communication tools like mail and instant messaging, security features like AntiVirus and Pop-Up Blocker, and favorites like online photos and music — all for free.

On the right side, there's a 'Sign in to Yahoo!' box. It includes a security tip: 'Are you protected? Create your sign-in seal.' Below this are input fields for 'Yahoo! ID' (with an example: free2rhyme@yahoo.com) and 'Password'. There's a checkbox for 'Keep me signed in (Uncheck if on a shared computer)'. A yellow 'Sign In' button is present. Below the button are links for 'I can't access my account' and 'Help'. At the bottom of the box, there's a link for 'Don't have a Yahoo! ID?' and a 'Create New Account' button.

- d. On the 'Join This Group' page that appears, set your membership preferences:

The screenshot shows the 'Join This Group' page for the group 'Comenius-Grundtvig-Leonardo-Partnerships'. The page is divided into several sections:

- Home / Attachments: A sidebar on the left with links to Home, Attachments, and a 'Members Only' section containing links to Post, Files, Photos, Links, Database, Polls, Members, Calendar, Promote, and Groups Labs (Beta).
- Visit the Groups blog: A banner at the top right encouraging users to visit the Groups blog for the latest Yahoo! Groups information.
- Join This Group: The main content area. It starts with a message: 'You are three quick steps away from joining Comenius-Grundtvig-Leonardo-Partnerships.' Below this is a note: 'Note: You are currently signed-in as hannelore.audenaert. If you are not hannelore.audenaert, Sign-in as a different user.'
- Step 1. Your Contact Information: This section explains that the profile shown will be used to identify the user when accessing photos, messages, and other features. It includes a 'Yahoo! Profile' section where the user's profile will be used to identify them when accessing the group's Web features. The current profile is 'hannelore.audenaert' with a link to 'Add new profile'. Below this is an 'Email Address' section where the user can choose the email address they would like group messages sent to. Three options are listed: hannelore.audenaert@g-o.be (selected), hannelore.audenaert@hotmail.com, and hannelore.audenaert@yahoo.com. There is a link to 'Add new email address'.
- Step 2. Message Delivery: This section explains that Yahoo! Groups lets you choose how you stay in touch. There are three options: 'Individual Email' (selected), 'Daily Digest', and 'Special Notices'. 'Individual Email' is described as 'The option to choose if you want to get each group message and special notice individually and immediately, as it is posted.' 'Daily Digest' is described as 'The option to choose if you want to see all messages but limit the amount of email you receive. We'll compile an email of up to 25 messages and send daily (special notices too).' 'Special Notices' is described as 'Receive only important email notices from the group moderator.' There is also a 'Web Only' option: 'Don't get notified of the latest happenings. Read messages only on the web.'
- Step 3. Message Preference: This section explains that the user can select a display format for any email messages they may receive. There are two options: 'Fully Featured New & Improved!' (selected) and 'Traditional'. Below this is a 'Type the code below' field and an 'Audio code' button.

- The public profile you want displayed to the group.
- The email address at which you would like to receive group messages.
- How you want group messages delivered:
  - Individual email: The option to choose if you want to get each group message and special notice individually and immediately, as it is posted.
  - Daily digest: The option to choose if you want to see all messages but limit the amount of email you receive. Yahoo! Groups will compile an email of up to 25 messages and send daily (special notices too!).
  - Special notices: Receive only important email notices from the group moderator.
  - Web only: Don't get notified of the latest happening. Read messages only on the web.
- The display format for email messages you receive: fully featured or traditional.

FULLY FEATURED Recommended

- Instant access to important group features (photos, calendar, profiles, polls, files, etc.)
- Activity module includes what's happening in your group

TRADITIONAL

- No links to important group features
- No information on recent activity in your group

- e. Click the 'Join' button in the lower-right corner of the page.

2) Joining by responding to an invitation to join.

If you receive an email invitation to join a group that you would like to join, click 'Join This Group!'.

On the page that appears describing the group, click 'Join the group'. If you prefer to simply receive emails from the group, click 'join the mailing list instead' (or follow the instructions in the next section).

3) Joining by subscribing to a group's mailing list only.

If you're not sure you want to join a particular group, you can try it out by signing up just to receive email messages from the group. However, when you're only on the mailing list, you can't access to the group's web features (photos, files, polls, and calendar).

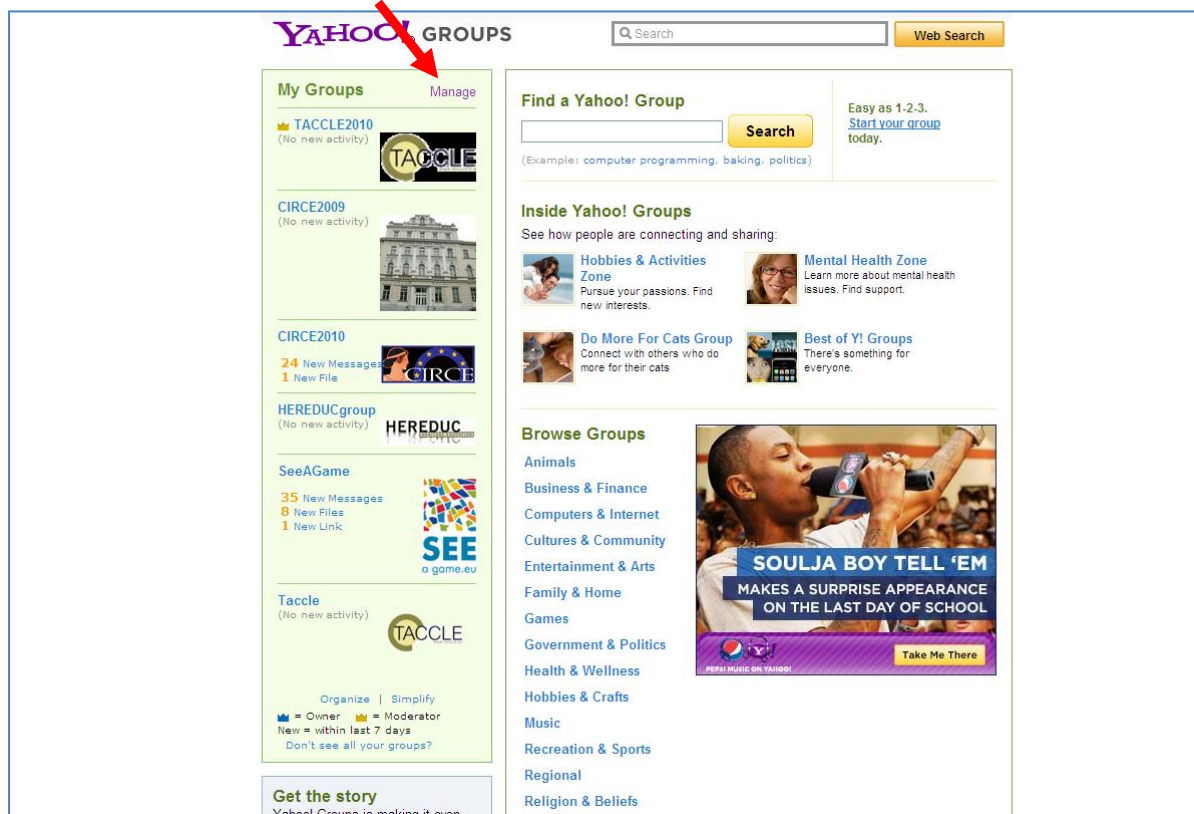

To subscribe to a group's mailing list via email:

1. Send a blank email to groupname-subscribe@yahoogroups.com, making sure to replace 'groupname' with the actual name of the group (for example 'Comenius-Grundtvig-Leonardo-Partnerships-subscribe@yahoogroups.com')
2. To activate your subscription, just reply to the confirmation message you receive from the group.

How do I manage my group memberships?

Once you have joined a group, you can manage and revise your groups and subscriptions setting at any time:

1. Sign in and click on 'Manage' in the 'My groups' box

2. Click on 'Edit My Groups' located above the list of groups.

The screenshot shows the 'My Groups' page on Yahoo! Groups. At the top, there's a 'Start a Group | My Groups' link. Below it, a 'My Groups' header bar contains two tabs: 'View Groups' and 'Edit My Groups'. A red arrow points to the 'Edit My Groups' tab. Below the tabs, there's a 'View: Simple | Expanded' selector and a pagination link '1 - 6 of 6'. The main content is a table of groups:

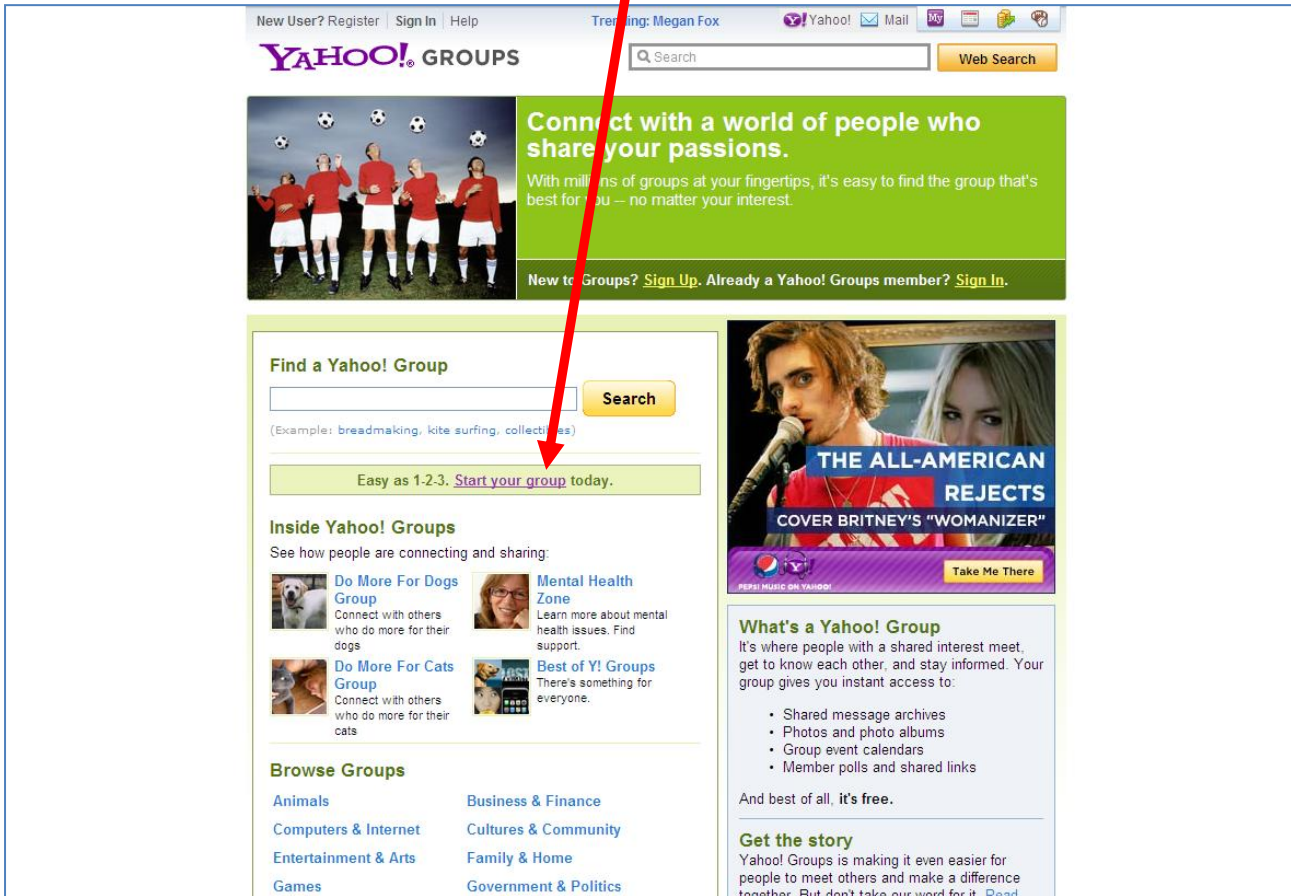

Group Name	Members	Yahoo! Profile	Email Address	Message Delivery
TACCLE2010 (No new activity)	42		hannelore.auden... hannelore.audenaert@g-o.be	Individual Emails
CIRCE2009 (No new activity)	23		hannelore.auden... hannelore.audenaert@g-o.be	Individual Emails
CIRCE2010 24 New Messages 1 New File	47		hannelore.auden... hannelore.audenaert@g-o.be	Individual Emails
HEREDUCgroup (No new activity)	15		hannelore.auden... hannelore.audenaert@g-o.be	Individual Emails
SeeAGame 35 New Messages 8 New Files 1 New Link	26		hannelore.auden... hannelore.audenaert@g-o.be	Individual Emails
Taccle (No new activity)	20		hannelore.auden... hannelore.audenaert@g-o.be	Individual Emails

3. Use the pull-down menus to choose the email address and membership type you prefer for each group, and click 'Save Changes'. If you don't see the email address you would like to use, you can use 'My Email Preferences' wizard (<http://groups.yahoo.com/member/preferences/communication/view>) to link new email addresses to your Yahoo! ID. You can link up to five email addresses to your Yahoo! ID.

How do I start a new group?

1. It is easy to start a group. Just click 'Start a Group' on any Yahoo! Groups page.

The screenshot shows the Yahoo! Groups homepage. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links like 'New User? Register', 'Sign In', and 'Help'. Below this is the 'YAHOO! GROUPS' header with a search bar. A large green banner features a soccer team and the text 'Connect with a world of people who share your passions.' Below the banner, there's a section 'Find a Yahoo! Group' with a search input and a 'Search' button. A red arrow points from the 'Start a Group' link in the top navigation bar to the 'Start your group' link in the 'Find a Yahoo! Group' section. To the right of the search bar, there's a section 'Inside Yahoo! Groups' with various group categories like 'Do More For Dogs Group', 'Mental Health Zone', 'Do More For Cats Group', and 'Best of Y! Groups'. Below this is a 'Browse Groups' section with categories like 'Animals', 'Business & Finance', 'Computers & Internet', 'Cultures & Community', 'Entertainment & Arts', 'Family & Home', 'Games', and 'Government & Politics'. On the right side, there's a featured article 'THE ALL-AMERICAN REJECTS COVER BRITNEY'S "WOMANIZER"' and a section 'What's a Yahoo! Group' explaining the benefits of joining a group.

2. Select a Yahoo! Groups Category

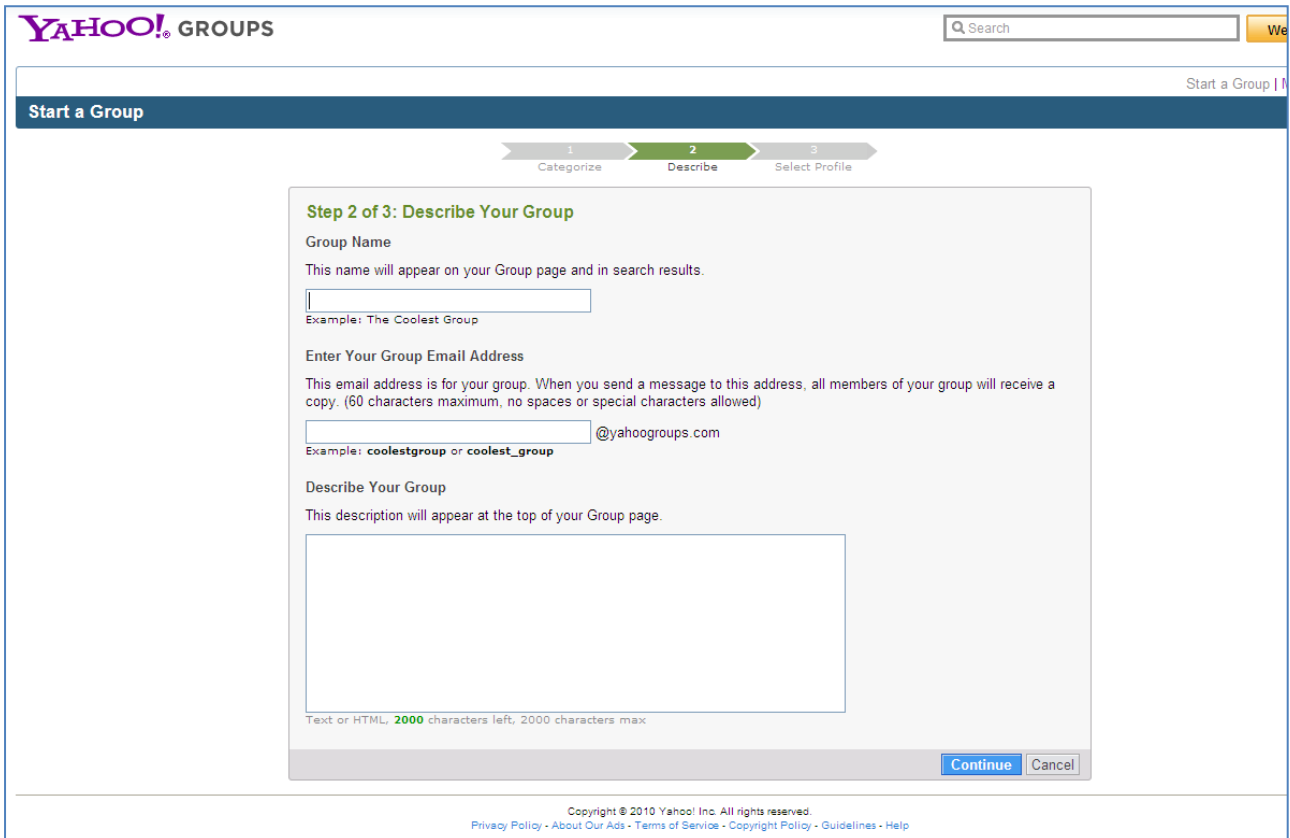

The screenshot shows the 'Start a Group' page on Yahoo! Groups. At the top, there's a navigation bar with the 'YAHOO! GROUPS' logo and a search bar. Below this is a dark blue header with the text 'Start a Group'. A progress bar shows three steps: 1. Categorize, 2. Describe, and 3. Select Profile. The first step, 'Categorize', is active. Below the progress bar, there's a section 'Step 1 of 3: Select a Yahoo! Groups Category'. This section contains a search bar labeled 'Search Group Categories:' and a 'GO' button. Below the search bar, there's a list of group categories under the heading 'Browse Group Categories'. The categories are: Business & Finance, Computers & Internet, Cultures & Community, Entertainment & Arts, Family & Home, Games, Government & Politics, Health & Wellness, Hobbies & Crafts, Katrina, Music, Recreation & Sports, Regional, Religion & Beliefs, Romance & Relationships, Schools & Education, and Science. At the bottom of the page, there's a copyright notice: 'Copyright © 2010 Yahoo! Inc. All rights reserved.' and links to 'Privacy Policy', 'About Our Ads', 'Terms of Service', 'Copyright Policy', 'Guidelines', and 'Help'.

Browse or search through the Yahoo! Groups directory to find the appropriate category. Look for categories that list similar groups or are specifically devoted to your subject.

Note: Adult oriented groups must be placed in the 'Adult' Category ('Romance & Relationships>Adult' or other sub-category with the word 'adult' in it).

The Yahoo! team of category editors will review your selection and might change the location of your group. Your group will be listed in the Yahoo! Groups directory within a few days.

3. Describe your group

The screenshot shows the 'Start a Group' page on Yahoo! Groups. At the top, there's a search bar and a 'We' button. Below the header, a progress bar indicates three steps: 1. Categorize, 2. Describe (current step), and 3. Select Profile. The main content area is titled 'Step 2 of 3: Describe Your Group'. It contains three sections: 'Group Name' with a text input field and an example 'The Coolest Group'; 'Enter Your Group Email Address' with a text input field and an example 'coolestgroup or coolest_group' followed by '@yahoogleroups.com'; and 'Describe Your Group' with a large text area. At the bottom of the text area, it says 'Text or HTML, 2000 characters left, 2000 characters max'. There are 'Continue' and 'Cancel' buttons at the bottom right of the form. The footer contains copyright information: 'Copyright © 2010 Yahoo! Inc. All rights reserved.' and links to 'Privacy Policy', 'About Our Ads', 'Terms of Service', 'Copyright Policy', 'Guidelines', and 'Help'.

Enter your group name which will appear on your Group page and in search results. Also enter your group email address..

In 'Describe Your Group' you will have to provide a detailed description of your group, up to 2000 characters long.

4. Select your Yahoo! Profile and Email Address

The screenshot shows the 'Start a Group' wizard on the Yahoo! Groups website. The progress bar at the top indicates three steps: 1. Categorize, 2. Describe, and 3. Select Profile (which is currently active). The main content area is titled 'Step 3 of 3: Select your Yahoo! Profile and Email Address'. It contains two sections: 'Email Address' and 'Yahoo! Profile'. The 'Email Address' section has a note: 'If you choose to receive group messages by email, they will be sent to the email address you select below.' It lists three options: 'hannelore.audenaert@g-o.be' (selected with a radio button), 'hannelore.audenaert@hotmail.com', and 'hannelore.audenaert@yahoo.com'. The 'Yahoo! Profile' section has a note: 'The profile you select will be used when other members want to learn more about you, or communicate with you via Yahoo! Messenger.' It displays a table with columns: Member, Real Name, Gender, and Age. The table shows one member: 'hannelore.audenaert' with '(Not Provided)' for Real Name, Gender, and Age. Below the table is a link 'Create new profile'. At the bottom of the form, there is a section 'Type the code below' with a text input field, an 'Audio code' button, and a 'Need help?' link. Below this is a CAPTCHA image showing the text 'BTBMAB' and a 'Try a new code' button. At the very bottom of the form are 'Continue' and 'Cancel' buttons. The footer of the page contains copyright information: 'Copyright © 2010 Yahoo! Inc. All rights reserved.' and links to 'Privacy Policy', 'About Our Ads', 'Terms of Service', 'Copyright Policy', 'Guidelines', and 'Help'.

What features are there as a member/administrator?

How do I manage my group?

1. Can I change the name or email address/URL of a group after I have set it up?

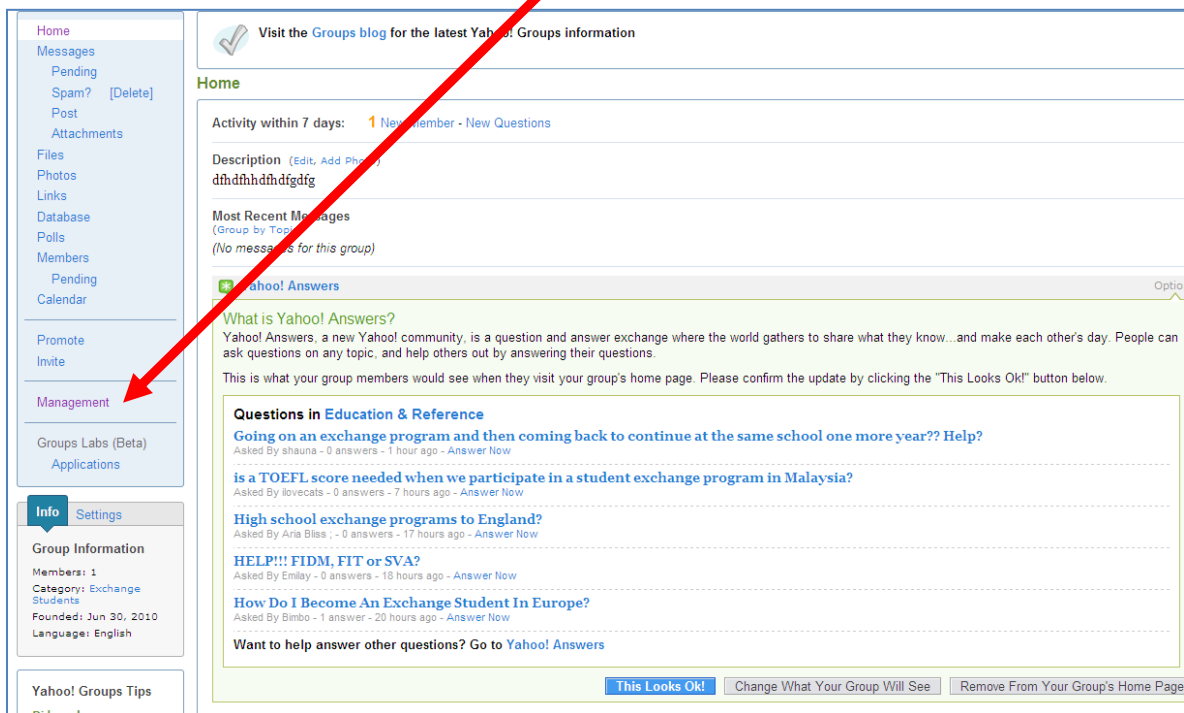

You can change the name or email address/URL of a group after you have set it up, but remember: this may confuse your members.

If you change your group email address/URL:

- Any existing invitations, links, and sign-up boxes outside the Yahoo! Groups service will no longer be valid, since these refer to your old group name.
- Any message filters or email in-box assistance programs maintained by your members may have to be changed. For example, if a member has an email program that organizes incoming messages into folders, it may not be able to recognize your new group name.
- If your group has been running for some time, your members may resist any changes to the name.

If you do decide to do it, here is how:

- From the list on the left, click 'Management'. This link only shows up if you're the owner of the group or a moderator with Management privileges.

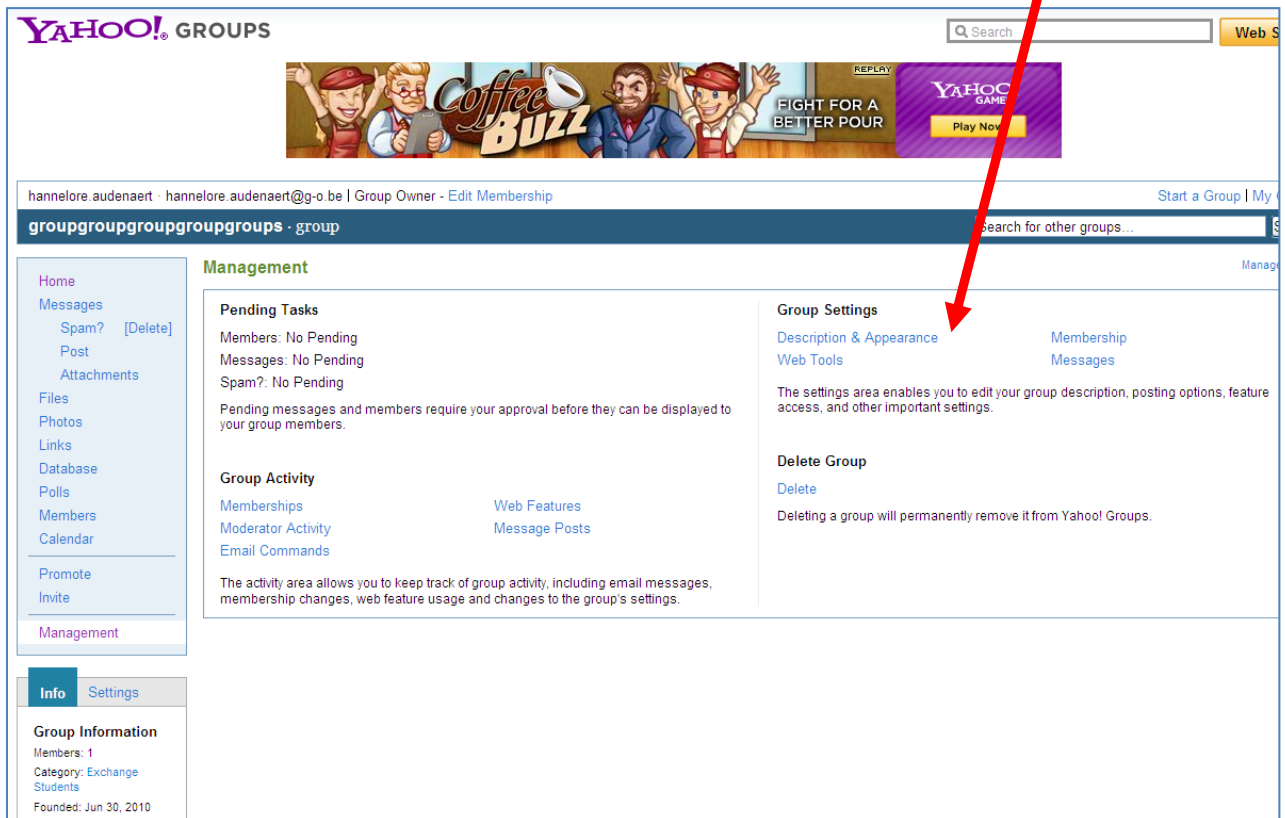

The screenshot shows the Yahoo! Groups interface. On the left sidebar, the 'Management' link is highlighted with a red arrow. The main content area displays the group's home page, including a description, a list of recent messages, and a section for Yahoo! Answers questions. The questions listed are:

- Going on an exchange program and then coming back to continue at the same school one more year?? Help?
- is a TOEFL score needed when we participate in a student exchange program in Malaysia?
- High school exchange programs to England?
- HELP!!! FIDM, FIT or SVA?
- How Do I Become An Exchange Student In Europe?

At the bottom of the page, there are buttons for 'This Looks Ok!', 'Change What Your Group Will See', and 'Remove From Your Group's Home Page'.

- Under 'Group Settings' in the upper right, click 'Description & Appearance'.

2. Can I re-categorize my group?

You can, but only once!

- Click 'Management'
- Click 'Description and Appearance' under Group Settings.
- Click 'Edit' next to Category.
- Use the Search or Browse directory using the category links until you find the category you want. Then click 'Put my group here'.

If you can't see the 'Edit' button, you have already recategorised your group.

3. How do I set the language for my Group?

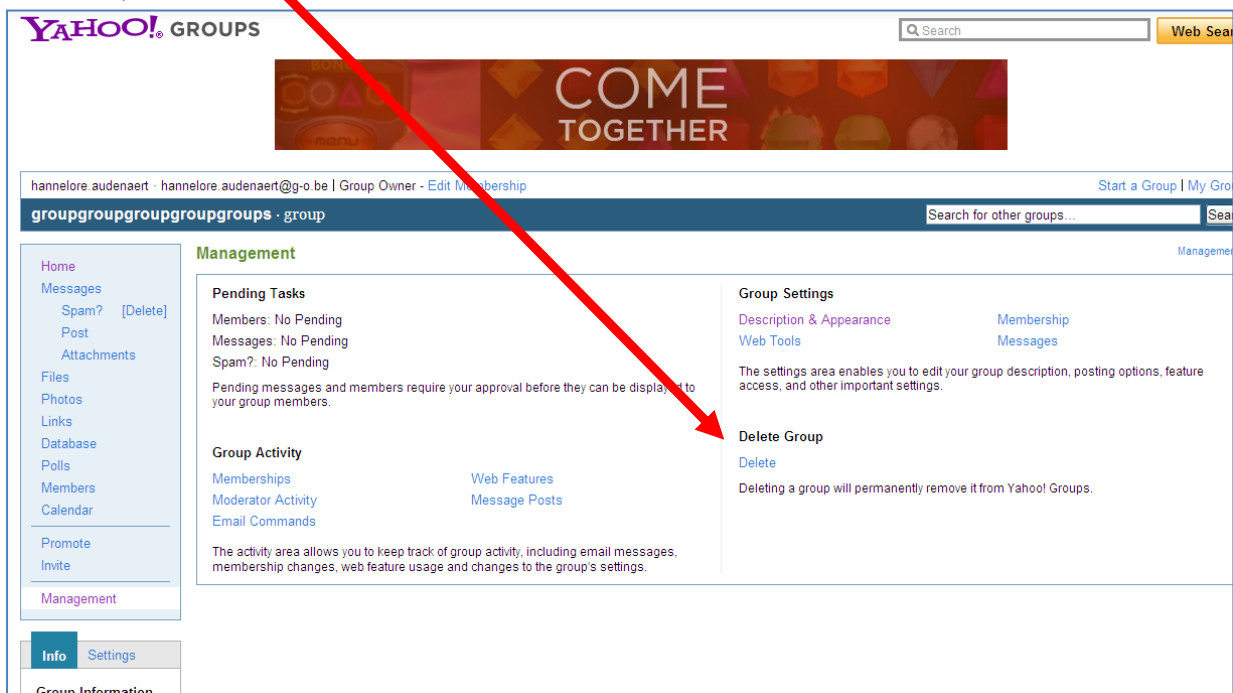

Here is how:

- From the list on the left, click Management. This link only appears if you're the owner of the group or a moderator with the appropriate privileges.
- Under "Group Settings", click Description and Appearance.
- Click Edit next to "Description".
- Choose the language you want from the "Primary Language" pull-down menu.

4. How do I delete a group?

If you're the group owner or a moderator with the necessary privileges to delete a group, you'll see the link to delete a group in the lower-right corner of the Management page.

Important: Deleting a group is permanent! Proceed with caution. If you click the Delete group button, you'll remove the group from Yahoo! Groups, unsubscribe all members, and eliminate all archives, shared files, and calendars.

The screenshot shows the Yahoo! Groups Management interface. At the top, there's a banner that says "COME TOGETHER". Below it, the user's name and email are displayed, along with a "Group Owner - Edit Membership" link. The main content area is titled "Management" and is divided into several sections: "Pending Tasks" (showing no pending members, messages, or spam), "Group Activity" (with links for Memberships, Moderator Activity, Email Commands, Web Features, and Message Posts), and "Group Settings" (with links for Description & Appearance, Membership, Web Tools, and Messages). The "Delete Group" link is located in the "Group Settings" section, with a warning that deleting a group will permanently remove it from Yahoo! Groups. A red arrow points from the text above to this "Delete Group" link.
